- Two recent photographs of excellent quality (HD) and free of copyright: one portrait and one in a playing position with the violin.
- An un-edited video recording containing the program required for the selection process, including the date and place of recording.

Candidates are responsible for, and requested to take any steps necessary in, obtaining a visa for Switzerland for the duration of the competition. The Competition organisers decline all responsibility in this respect.

The choice of pieces given on the registration form is final, apart from exceptional cases which are subject to validation by the direction of the Competition.

Candidates having registered and been selected who are subsequently unable to participate in the competition are requested to inform the organisers immediately.

REGISTRATION COSTS

The registration fee is CHF 150.- (one hundred fifty Swiss francs) is payable according to the instructions given online. The registration fee is non-refundable.

PROCEDURE

Each candidate will be accompanied by an orchestra during the first, second and final rounds of the competition. The allocated rehearsal time with the orchestra is as follows:

- o 30 minutes for the first round
- o 45 minutes for the second round
- o 45 minutes for the final

The organisers reserve the right to modify the rehearsal time according to the number of candidates or in case of exceptional circumstances. Candidates will be notified as soon as possible.

Rehearsals with the orchestra are private. However, all adjudicated performances are public.

Rehearsal rooms will be reserved by the Competition organisers. All candidates will receive the same amount of rehearsal time (at least two hours per day and at least thirty minutes before each performance).

The complete program includes one video-recorded performance (submitted online) and three public performances, which will be recorded.

The following pieces may be played with scores:

- o First round : Pärt, Passacaglia
- o Second round : Bartulis, Schubert, Mercury, "Mama! I like Schubert!"
- o Final:
 - o Bach, 2nd mvt. of Concerto for Two Violins in D minor, BWV 1043
 - o The contemporary piece for solo violin written after 1970.

All other pieces should be played by heart.

PRESELECTION

The objective of preselecting by video is to choose a maximum of twelve candidates who will be invited to take part in the public adjudicated performances of the Competition. The preselection takes place behind closed doors in the presence of an international jury chaired by the President of the jury for the 2020 edition of the Competition. The names of the selected candidates will be published on our internet site from May 30th 2020. Candidates will be personally notified and receive an official convocation by email before May 30th 2020, giving the time and place at which they should present themselves in Sion.

ORDER OF PASSAGE

A draw will determine the order of passage of the candidates for the entirety of the competition. This will be organised in Sion on Monday, August 24th 2020 at 11h00.

If a case of a force majeure prevents a candidate from attending the draw, he/she is expected to justify his/her absence at least 72 hours before the draw. At his/her express request, a person designated by the candidate or a representative of the Competition will draw a number in his/her place. The candidate is then requested to contact the Competition organisers immediately in order to know the day and time at which he should be available to take part in the first round of the competition.

The order of passage set by the draw cannot be modified, except if, in case of a force majeure, the Competition organisers decide otherwise. In any case, only the direction of the Competition is entitled to make this decision.

In general, the Competition undertakes to respect the schedule set for each candidate by the draw. Candidates are expected, once the order of passage and schedule are known, to be present before each performance at the times communicated to them.

ADJUDICATED PUBLIC PERFORMANCES

The competition will unfold as follows:

- o First round, Tuesday August 25th 2020
(rehearsal Monday 24th and Tuesday 25th)
- o Second round, Thursday 27th August 2020
(rehearsal Wednesday 26th August)
- o Final, Saturday 29th August 2020
(rehearsal Friday 28th August)

The results will be announced after each round. The decisions of the jury are final.

At the end of the second round, any candidates not selected for the next round will receive a certificate of participation. Prizes will be awarded to the winners at the end of the final round.

Subsequently, a laureate may be invited to participate in concerts as a soloist, notably at the opening concert of the « Il Piccolo Violino » Competition (www.ilpiccoloviolinomagico.it).

All candidates are required to respond to requests from the media during the competition. The organisers reserve the right to select these media and will inform the candidates of any requests for interviews or photos submitted to them.

MASTERCLASS

Candidates eliminated in the first two rounds will have the opportunity to participate in a masterclass with members of the jury.

JURY

The jury will be confirmed in the coming months. It is composed of internationally recognized personalities, including Pavel Verikov, President, and Gidon Kremer.

Candidates not selected at each round will join the jury in the following round and will participate in public events and concerts.

DECISIONS OF THE JURY

The Jury may at any time modify the program of events, taking into account the pieces to be played by each candidate. The jury also reserves the right to interrupt the execution of a piece if a sufficient opinion, good or bad, has been formed of the candidate.

At the end of the first round, two or three members of the Jury will be at the disposal of unsuccessful candidates to comment on their performances.

The deliberations of the Jury are governed by internal regulations.

The decisions of the jury are final.

WELCOME, TRANSPORT ET ACCOMODATION

Candidates must present themselves at the Competition office in Sion no later than Monday August 24th 2020 at 10.00. A detailed map to assist in finding the office (15 minutes walk from Sion train station) will be provided to candidates once their selection is confirmed. The organisers will also provide candidates with a candidate card and all the information needed for their stay in Sion.

- o All travel and living expenses will be borne by the participants.
- o The Competition provides a list of housing options. Candidates are responsible for making their reservation with families, bed and breakfasts and hotels. Persons accompanying the candidates are responsible for their own accommodation.
- o The Competition does not participate in food and drink expenses. Candidates receive a list of restaurants where they can avail of discounts.
- o The Competition offers those selected for the final round an amount of CHF 300.- towards travel expenses, unless they are domiciled within 300km of Sion.
